BRIDGET'S NEW SHOES

By Linda Owens

Bridget didn't mind getting up early that morning. Bridget and her Mom were going shopping for shoes. They were not going to buy school shoes. They were going to buy special shoes for Bridget. Bridget was beginning her ballet classes on Monday and needed to find ballet shoes. Bridget was a little worried because she had never seen ballet shoes in the shoe store where she bought school shoes. She had seen her Mom looking in the telephone book for a special shoe store just for dancers.

Bridget and Mom drove to the store. There she saw the pink ballet shoes she had always wanted. She tried them on and they fit perfectly. Bridget couldn't wait until time for class on Monday.
