

SPENCER'S NEW HAIRCUT

By Linda Owens

Spencer was six months old. He weighed about three pounds now. He had really grown from a tiny puppy weighing only 1 pound at six weeks old. He was in the car riding with his owner. Spencer loved to ride. It didn't matter to him where they went as long as they went together. He loved the family that had adopted him. He had been a gift to Mrs. Owens from her husband. Spencer loved his new family.

Spencer looked at all the cars and houses as they drove down the road. He had no idea where they were going. Soon the car stopped and they got out. Mrs. Owens carried Spencer in her arms and took him into a shop. Spencer heard other dogs barking. He looked around for a friend and wagged his tail. A nice lady named "Miss Debbie" came over to him and called his name. He licked her on the hand. Miss Debbie took Spencer and told his Mom to come back in about 2 hours. Spencer was a little scared. He had never been left anywhere before. He liked this nice lady. First he got a nice warm bath. Miss Debbie took him out of the sink and dried his hair. Then, she gave him the cutest haircut a poodle could ever want. Miss Debbie took a little scarf with red hearts on it and tied it around his neck. Spencer was so proud of his new haircut and scarf. Soon his Mom came to pick him up. She smiled and hugged Spencer. He was beautiful and was happy to have his Mom back.
