

Name _____ Date _____

COUGARS

Cougars are a member of the cat family.

They live in North, Central, and South America.

Puma (4 or 5 ft. long, not including the tail)

The cougar is also called a puma or a mountain lion.

Cougar cubs have spots when they are young.

The spots disappear when they mature.

The cougar cannot roar.

However, it does make a sound like a human scream.

Name _____ Date _____

Answer the questions about COUGARS

1. Cougars live in
 - a. North America
 - b. Central America
 - c. South America
 - d. all of the above

2. A cougar is also called a
 - a. puma
 - b. mountain lion
 - c. leopard
 - d. both a and b

3. Cougar cubs have _____ when they are young.
 - a. stripes
 - b. spots
 - c. roars
 - d. none of the above

Name _____ Date _____

ANSWER THE QUESTIONS ABOUT COUGARS

1. Imagine meeting a cougar in the woods. Write about it.

2. What other animals does the cougar remind you of?
Tell why?

3. What does disappear mean in this story?

Name _____ Date _____

Answers to COUGARS

Multiple-choice:

1. d
2. d
3. b

Short-answer:

1. Answers will vary; accept reasonable answers.
2. Answers will vary; accept reasonable answers.
3. Disappear = vanish, go away