A retelling is a brief summary of what a book is about. It includes the main events or key points of the story. In a retelling, these main events should be told in chronological order. Characters, settings, problems, and solutions are also main events and should be included in the retelling.

Characters___________________________________________________
Setting______________________________________________________
Problem_____________________________________________________
Solution_____________________________________________________

Main events or key points of the story:
1. ______________________________________________________________________
2. ______________________________________________________________________
3. ______________________________________________________________________
4. ______________________________________________________________________
5. ______________________________________________________________________

My Retelling

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________