

The setting is an important part of any fairy tale. The tone of the story is set in the way the setting is described. Use the descriptions in your book to help you draw the setting and answer questions about the setting.

Title of fairy tale _____

Draw a picture to match the description of the setting:

Write the descriptive words that helped you draw your picture.
