

Name _____ Date _____

Teachers

Teachers help students learn new things. A student is a person who studies at school. Teachers help students understand new ideas.

Teachers help students learn about subjects. Reading, writing, and art are subjects. Math and science are subjects. Teachers grade papers and tests. They take students on field trips.

Teachers are important because

Veterinarians

Veterinarians are animal doctors. They are also called vets. Vets care for sick animals. They help healthy animals stay that way.

Veterinarians also try to make sick animals better. Sometimes vets must operate to help a sick animal. They also set broken bones. Vets sometimes give shots to animals.

Veterinarians are important because

Name _____ Date _____

Mail Carriers

Mail carriers deliver mail. They make sure that letters and packages go to the right people. Mail carriers also gather the mail that people send.

Mail carriers pick up mail at the post office. A post office is a building where mail is sorted. Then mail carriers walk or drive their routes. A route is the places a mail carrier must go to bring the mail.

Mail carriers are important because

Farmers

Farmers work many hours so that people will have food. Some farmers grow crops of fruits, vegetables, and grains. Other farmers raise livestock, such as cows, pigs, and chickens.

Some farmers plow the ground and plant seeds. Crops grow from the seeds. Other farmers raise cows and sell the milk and meat. Some farmers grow fruits on trees.

Farmers are important because
