

Liquid and Solid Riddle Book

I am water until I get too cold, then I change states. What am I?

I am frozen and put into a cone. When I get warm I melt and make your hands sticky. What am I?

I bounce up and down. You can take out my air to make me flat but I will not become a liquid. What am I?

I am round with a hole in the middle. You can change my shape by taking yummy bites.
What am I?
