

The night before your first flight, how would you feel? Tell me about it.

It's the next day. You are starting to go up in the air, higher and higher.
How does it feel? What do you see?

Suddenly, a thunderstorm moves in to the place where you are flying! How do you feel? What happens next?

You are now safe on the ground with your owner. Think about your day. Tell about you favorite parts.