

TUNDRA ALLITERATIONS

Alliteration is what happens when the words in a phrase or a sentence begin with the same letter and sound. Alliteration is used to make writing more interesting. It is also used to write tongue twisters. Here is an example of an alliteration using the word POLAR and the beginning P sound:

Playful polar bears are persistent predators.

Many times the alliterations and tongue twisters are funny. Try your hand at writing alliteration. Use a dictionary to help you find words.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____

Draw an illustration of one of the alliteration/tongue twisters above.

TUNDRA SIMILES

Similes compare two things by using the words like or as. Think of things about the tundra region or animals that live in it. Write some similes about them.

Here is a simile about a penguin:

The penguin's feathers kept the egg as warm as toast.

Now your turn:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

Pick the one you like the best. Write it in the box below and illustrate it.
