THE BUNNIES GO SHOPPING

It was almost spring, and all the little bunnies in the bunny family needed new clothes. Mrs. Bunny needed to take them shopping. Mr. Bunny was playing golf with his friends. He could not go shopping with the family. Mrs. Bunny got up very early on Saturday morning and made breakfast. Then she woke up all four of her children and fed them. It was time to get dressed. The little bunnies were all playing, and they did not want to get dressed. Mrs. Bunny helped all the little bunnies put on their clothes. Finally, everyone was ready to go. The little bunnies and Mrs. Bunny got into the car. The little bunnies were happy to be going to the mall. They liked to see all the people in the mall. The bunnies were very excited, and they made a lot of noise. Mrs. Bunny was getting a headache from all the noise the little bunnies were making. She told them to be quiet or they wouldn't go to the mall. The bunnies usually liked to run and jump in the mall. Mrs. Bunny told them they would not get new clothes if they didn't behave. The little bunnies were very good in the mall. Everyone got new shorts, shirts, and hats to wear to school. Mrs. Bunny bought each of her little bunnies a strawberry ice cream cone before they left the mall. She told them that they had been very good in the mall. All the little bunnies fell asleep in the car while Mrs. Bunny drove home.
