

A SWEET ADVENTURE

It was a rainy gray Saturday morning. I was bored. All of my friends were out of town, and I had nothing to do. My two little sisters, Allison and Brooke, were playing in the next room. I decided to see what they were doing. I walked into the room that they shared, and saw the bags of candy they had brought home from the party the night before. Our mother had said they shouldn't eat too much candy, so I stooped down to pick the bags up and put them away. As soon as my hand touched them, Whoosh!

I was whizzing down a red licorice slide. I was moving so quickly that everything was a giant blur. Plop! I landed on what appeared to be a deserted beach. I put my hand down to help myself up. I marveled at the strange feel of the sand. I sifted the sand through my fingers, trying to decide how it was different than regular sand. It felt more like powdered sugar than sand. Wait a minute, I thought. I tentatively placed a finger in my mouth. It WAS powdered sugar. I licked my fingers clean, and stood up to go and explore. I certainly wasn't bored anymore!

I walked towards the shimmering water. I noticed many seashells along the water's edge. I had a huge collection of shells at home from our last excursion to the beach, and I quickly decided to bring home a few shells from this unique beach. The shells were very colorful. Some were partially covered with the powdered sugar sand. I bowed down to pick one up. It was stickier than I expected. I hesitated for a moment, but then my curiosity overcame me. I had to find out if the shell was as tasty as the sand in which it was covered! I nibbled at the edge of the shell. It was even better than the sand! The taste of chocolate was so wonderful that I shoved the whole shell into my mouth. I suddenly realized that I was ravenous. I quickly bent down and shoveled shells into my mouth until I wasn't quite so hungry. Then I slowed down and began to savor the tastes. The shells were many different flavors. I definitely tasted vanilla, chocolate, caramel, and even strawberry.

After a while, I realized that I was parched. I hadn't had anything to drink since my orange juice that morning. I looked longingly towards the ocean. I knew that drinking salty water would only make me thirstier. Then a wonderful thought occurred to me! If the sand was sugar, and the shells were candy, then perhaps the water wasn't salty.

I walked to the water's edge. I bent down and cupped my hands together. I submerged my hands into the light blue liquid. I slowly brought my hands towards my mouth and took a little sip. It was definitely not salty! In fact...it tasted just like blueberry juice. I drank several gulps, and then I sat back down again in the sugar to think about my strange day.

I was beginning to wonder how I had arrived in this bizarre place. It certainly was unusual. The last thing that I remembered doing at home was picking up the bags of candy. That was it! It suddenly made sense. I had somehow been transported via the bags to a land made of candy.

It occurred to me that I was going to have to figure out how to get home. I knew that I would eventually miss my family, and even get hungry for some nourishment other than candy. I stood up and began walking. I remembered sliding down a licorice slide. I saw a playground in the distance. I began rapidly running toward the red slide.

I immediately tried to climb back up the slide to see if it would take me home. The only place it took me was to the top of the slide. I slid back down the slide and began looking in earnest for some way to get home. I looked up and down the beach for signs, but I didn't see any. I sat down disconsolately on a taffy towel that I found in the sand, and began to cry. My tears landed on the sand, and Swoooooosh!

I felt the world start to swirl, and I fell through the hole that my tears had created.

Suddenly, I found myself lying on my sister Allison's bed. I felt as if I had just woken up after a long sleep. I looked around. What a realistic dream, I thought. It was almost as if it had really happened. I got out of bed and looked down. There was a pile of sugar on top of the sheets.
